" Those Who Served Over the Centuries", by Major General Jim Adkins, USA, Retired,
Wednesday, May 3, 2017

General Jim Adkins is a native of Dorchester County with a love of history. His European ancestors came to the southern part of Dorchester County in the 1600's. Before that, his Native American ancestors lived along the shores of the Chesapeake Bay.

Jim spoke about those who served our Country from Dorchester County over the centuries with a focus on World War I as we mark the 100th anniversary of the US entering that war.
